

What is noise and how would it be treated in the study area?

- Noise is measured in decibels (dB).
- A 3 dB change generally represents a barely noticeable change while a 10 dB change would be considered twice as loud.

- How does noise from the highway travel in each alternative?

- Where are some possible locations for noise barriers?

- How could the noise walls look?

